

We're building a more accessible future.

Amazon's vision is to become Earth's most customer-centric company. That means making our devices and services accessible to everyone—especially people with disabilities.

Attend our sessions and learn more at amazon.com/accessibility

